SEPTEMBER 2, 2008 -- SLOT ONE ENTERTAINMENT announces a music licensing agreement with Portland based RUMBLEFISH MUSIC PUBLISHING for direct placement of songs, by Slot-1 Label artists, to film, television, video games and other outlets.

Among songs signed with Rumblefish are songs by Slot-1 artists LYRA PROJECT, including "Ordinary Girl" and "Patiently Waits", and also the song "Tsai" by artist RICK DENZIEN. The song Tsai, the first single release from Denizen's RADIATE CD, reached the TOP 10 in the NEW MUSIC WEEKLY RADIO CHARTS for over 26 consecutive weeks. TSAI was Nominated Best New Artist in two categories, including, Crossover Artist of the Year and AC Breakthrough Artist of the Year. Denzien was honored at an Awards ceremony at the NEW MUSIC AWARDS in Los Angeles, CA, and last November. 14 other Rick Denzien originals were also signed.

Also signed with Rumblefish Music is Slot-1 artist folk/Americana singer-songwriter, Bob Mecklenberger, for 13 original songs from the new release DO IT!, recorded and produced by Rick Denzien at the Slot-1 Studio in Ambler, PA.

"We are very excited about this development. Now we have another partner going to bat for new independent music," said Denzien. "This opens the door for Slot-1 artist productions and songwriters signed to the publishing house."

Debra Lee co-founder of the Lyra Project, co-writer of "Ordinary Girl" and "Patiently Waits" with Denzien, got Twelve (12) Songs from her first CD MILLENNIAL THING which includes titles "Clear Blue Ridge Sky" and "Sweet Loving Man".

In all, nearly 50 songs were chosen by Rumblefish in this first round. Potential estimated worth of the catalog $1,500,000.

In addition, other songs from the slot-1 music catalog were signed by a competing firm, New York based PumpAudio.
