Two full days 9-5 p.m.

A full audition workshop that will help you succeed your auditions in person and online from beginning to end. This is a result-oriented class that will make a difference. Discover secrets from the casting room and decision makers you never knew.

This could be Deb Munro's last time here, so this is a good time to take advantage Philly.

Create a comprehensive marketing package that will put you one step ahead of the game!

This is one of the best workshops Deb has ever put together

"What amazed me the most, is that she turned some performances from a "not sure if we would offer representation" to a resounding "YES, that's someone we would want on our roster", and to be able to achieve that in 5 minutes, is a testament to her ability to find just exactly the little pieces that are often missing in a performance, and manage to pull it out to the surface to deliver a great read....." Dan Sandor, Vox Talent
